PRINT MATERIALS TO DISTRIBUTE TO YOUR CONGREGATION)

3. JOIN 1000'S OF BELIEVERS

in congregations across our region, in the Churchwide
Sunday service!

Simply devote your Sunday service, May 17,
to the theme of "Biblical Worldview" (ex: Christian literacy, thinking theologically, knowing what you believe).

MAKE IT YOUR OWN EXPRESSION !

Use your in-house team for worship/teaching.
(We can provide helpful materials if you'd like)

OR: Stream the Sunday Keynote with Ray Ortland as part of your service (instructions available with media kit at our website, and we will have a contact person available ahead of time, and by phone on day of event, to help).

Take the lead! Add your voice!

If God is leading you and you are excited about this, please talk with us at theo@thetheologyproject.com about joining the lead churches who have given in prayer, finances and volunteers to make this event possible.

FCC2020 features leading speakers to address these topics:

Family, gender, politics, justice, race, media & technology confront us with immense challenges today.

Buffalo and Rochester named among most Post Christian cities in the U.S.

Our children often leave the church when they leave home.

Bible literacy: only 17 percent of Christians having a biblical worldview.
